

ABA Section of International Law
2018 Life Sciences Conference

June 10-12, 2018
Scandic, Copenhagen

Agenda: Over the course of 2 days, this Conference will present eleven panels with distinguished speakers who will discuss issues of importance to the European region and transatlantic relations, including:

European Patent Package
Jurisdiction in Life Sciences Litigation
Regulatory Developments
Trade Secrets Protection
Product Pricing
Worldwide Clinical Trials
Artificial Intelligence
Privacy / Data Protection
Ethics and More

Click Here to view full agenda.

Why Attend? This Conference will address hot topics and recent developments in Europe and the United States related to Life Sciences. The programs will examine legal issues related to cross-border transactions and international dispute resolution. In addition, participants will enjoy valuable networking events in unique and memorable venues such as Tivoli Gardens and City Hall.

Location: The Conference will be held at the Scandic Hotel in the beautiful city of Copenhagen, Denmark. This hotel features unparalleled views of the stunning Copenhagen skyline and is surrounded by lakes and major attractions. Hotel rooms at reduced rates are going quickly.

BOOK TODAY before rooms run out!

Use booking code: BAME090618

Who Should Attend? Lawyers practicing in Europe and/or the United States; lawyers with a cross-border practice and/or an interest in European affairs; those who want to enhance their cross-border exposure, in-house counsel handling matters in Europe as well as academics, regulators and law students with a focus on the region.

Register Today With Early-Bird Discount